

Forecasting across spatial scales and time horizons

13-15th September 2023, Norrköping, Sweden

Travel and Accommodation suggestions

Information for those who aim to attend the course in person:

Participants are expected to make their own arrangements and cover all associated costs such as travel expenses and accommodation (the HEPEX workshop itself is free of cost).

Registration

All participants, who are attending in person, need to register (providing passport number) using this link.

Flying to Norrköping

It is easiest to fly to Stockholm or Linköping and then travel by train or bus to Norrköping:

- Arlanda Airport (Stockholm), then train (www.sj.se) to Norrköping
- Skavsta Airport (Nyköping) then bus (www.flyggbussarna.se) to Norrköping
- Bromma Airport (Stockholm) then metro, train to Norrköping (<https://sl.se>, www.sj.se)
- Linköping Airport (Linköping) then taxi to Norrköping (<https://www.linköpingcityairport.se/?lang=en>)

You can also travel by train from Copenhagen.

How to get to SMHI

SMHI's address: Folkborgsvägen 17, 603 80 Norrköping, Sweden

- By tram: Take No.3 towards Klockaretorget, to the stop SMHI. Tickets can be purchased in the Ostgotatrafiken app, or by purchasing a Resekort (travel card) at a PressByrån or Direkten. No tickets can be purchased on board. If you do not have a ticket and there is a controller, you will receive a 1000 SEK fine.

- Single ticket: ~30 SEK
- Day ticket: 75 SEK (can be used for multiple journeys in one day)
- On foot: From Pronova Vandrahem Hostel, it takes approximately 30 mins to walk to SMHI along the river (see map here)

Suggestions for accommodation in Norrköping

These are various options for accommodation covering a range of prices.
